- July 22 Cruising New Hampshire History
Thurs 7PM
Join author Michael Bruno as he takes us from Pittsburg to Portsmouth and everywhere in between to enjoy the roadside markers of New Hampshire, through slides, and stories, and slices of history.
- July 29 Waterfalls of the White Mountains
Thurs 7 PM
The White Mountains are home to many gushing, cascading waterfalls waiting to be discovered. Bruce Bolnick, author of Waterfalls of the White Mountains will present an evening describing these waterfalls and guide us through our next excursion to the White Mountains of NH.
- July 30 Waterfalls of the White Mountains Field Trip
Friday 9AM-1PM
This hike will visit several White Mountain Waterfalls. Led by Bruce Bolnick and assisted by David Govatski. Hiking distance 5 miles with a vertical climb of 1,000 feet. Limited number of hikers so participants need to pre-register with info.weeksstateparkassociation@gmail.com
- Aug 5 Owls of New Hampshire Zoom Presentation
Thurs 7PM
Zoom
Who calls in the night? What makes owls such extraordinary night hunters? Squam Lakes Natural Science Center naturalists will introduce you to three of our state's owls in a virtual presentation via Zoom. Participants to this event are limited. Send an email to the Weeks State Park Association, info.weeksstateparkassociation@gmail.com. Include the word "Owls" in the subject line. On the day of the event we will send you the link.
- Aug 12 Garland Mill, Water Powered for 164 Years
Thurs 7PM
Hear from Dana Southworth the incredible story of Lancaster's water-powered sawmill, the only commercial sawmill in New Hampshire operating solely by waterpower.
- Aug 13 Garland Mill Field Trip
Friday 4PM
Join Dana and Ben Southworth as they show off their unique and historic treasure. Please pre-register for the Field Trip by emailing WSPA at info.weeksstateparkassociation@gmail.com, and include the word "Mill" in the subject line. Details and directions to the mill will be emailed to you.
- Aug 19 Islay Mist Céilidh & Weeks State Park Association Annual Meeting
Thurs 6:30PM
Islay Mist Céilidh is a group of musicians from Northern NH who play traditional Celtic music from Scotland, Ireland and maritime Canada. Members perform with fiddles, flutes and whistles, bodhráns, harps and guitars. The Weeks State Park Association hosts their Annual Meeting prior to this concert, and all are invited to attend.

Evening programs are at the Summit Lodge, Thursdays at 7:00 pm. Attendance is free and the public is invited to all programs. Weeks State Park is located about 2 miles south of Lancaster, NH on Route 3. Come early and enjoy the scenic park drive and views. Thanks to our local business supporters who make our programs possible.

The University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension is an equal opportunity educator and employer, University of New Hampshire, US Department of Agriculture, and New Hampshire Counties cooperating.
